

France the violation of Swiss territory would be a necessity of the German army, which would thus turn on our eastern frontier, and especially the auxiliary Italian army, which would take the most important rôle in the Alps in a year. The strategy may, perhaps, explain the importance with which his mark has treated the Wolgemuth affair.

LONDON, June 25th.
The yacht squadron at the meeting in London yesterday, resolved that it was impossible to accept the proposed new deed of the gift of the America's cup.

PARIS, June 26th.
The Government has stopped payment of General Boulanger's pension. The latter will bring suit against the authorities to compel its payment.

The Boulangerist deputy, Ligerre, made a speech at St. Andrew's Hall here to-day, at a meeting to arrange for a banquet on July 14th. There was great disorder.

The proprietor of a cafe here was recently imprudent enough to make a specialty of Bavarian beer. In consequence he lost his French customers, who accused him of being a traitor. The papers took up the question and published a violent attack on the proprietor, who was finally obliged to publish a card saying that he recognized his mistake, and hereafter nothing that could recall the name of Germany should be sold in his place.

BERLIN, June 26th.
Germany has withdrawn her consent to send a representative to the coming international Labor Congress to be held at Bern. This action is said to be due entirely to the complications of Switzerland, which have grown out of the Wolgemuth affair.

LONDON, June 26th.
The Salvation Army quatered in London was called upon for active service in the field to-day to resist an onslaught of London police. The Salvationists fought bravely, but the little band was soon overpowered, their musical instruments and their flags were smashed and strewed along the street, and the most pugnacious of the number carried off to the lock-up.

Mr. Joseph Chamberlain has accepted an invitation to preside at the farewell banquet to be given to Mr. and Mrs. Kendall on the eve of their departure for America.

The Cologne Gazette intimates that Germany will take precautionary and defensive measures on the Swiss frontier in July unless some guarantee is given that Socialists and Militants shall not be allowed to plot against her peace in the Swiss territory and that dangerous persons shall not be permitted to cross the frontier into German territory.

The Cologne Gazette, reviewing the recent proceedings for her own protection in progress, says that in the event of a possible menace on the part of Russia the Sublime Porte would join the Triple Alliance.

In the Parnell Commission to-day Mr. Sexton, Mayor of Dublin, was called to the stand. He declared that boycotting was a necessary evil, and would not say he was opposed to the principles of the Fenians.

The Newcastle and Gosforth Park Summer Meeting took place to-day. The race for the Northernhand Plate was won by Drizzle, King James second, St. Martin third. Seven ran. The betting at the start was as follows: 1 to 1 against Drizzle, 5 to 2 against King James, 8 to 1 against St. Martin.

WASHINGTON, June 26th.
The President has appointed Walter Phelps, of New Jersey, Minister to Germany.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 26th.
The Grashdanin says the Russian army is to be supplied with new rifles made in France after the latest model.

LONDON, June 27th.
At the Sandown Park first Summer meeting to-day the Robt. De Wittville handicap of 500 sovereigns was won by Needless, with Season second, and Lucy Long third. The race for the Electric Sinks of 2,000 sovereigns was won by Listen, with Ormus second, and Freeman third.

At the Newcastle Meeting, the race for the Season Develat Plate of 1,500 sovereigns was won by Lump, with Ponca second, and Devil's Fish third.

LATE TELEGRAMS.

LONDON, July 3rd.
The Shah of Persia, in replying to an address presented to him by the Mayor of Windsor yesterday, said that he sincerely trusted that his visit to England would be attended with good results to Persia. His Majesty further said that he attached the deepest importance to an alliance between the two peoples.

Afternoon.
The reception of the Shah by the Lord Mayor and the Corporation of the City at the Guildhall to-day was a most brilliant pageant. The entire route from Buckingham Palace to the Guildhall was lined with troops, and the decorations of the houses and public buildings were most profuse. The streets were packed by dense crowds of people, who cheered the royal carriages vociferously. His Majesty, in his reply to the address of the Corporation, said that he was greatly impressed with the cordial manner in which he had been received by the people of London, and that he held the friendship, power, and industry of England in the highest esteem. His Majesty hoped that his visit would inaugurate a new era between England and Persia.

Evening.—At a "spread" at the Guildhall which followed the reception of the Shah and the presentation to him of the freedom of the City, in reply to the speech of the Lord Mayor proposing his health, he thanked his lordship for the great honor that had been bestowed upon him by the Corporation, and also for the hospitality which had been extended to him. Lord Salisbury, in his speech on the occasion, said that he hoped that Persia would remain prosperous and strong. England, he said, asked for no exclusive privilege for herself in that country, but only freedom of trade, and urged no friendship which would end in war or aggression, but have a consequence in enterprise and industry.

CAIRO, July 3rd.
Colonel Wodehouse, who left Wady Halfa with a force of Egyptian troops to oppose the advance of the derwishes, has fought an action with them in which the derwishes were defeated with the loss of 500 killed. The loss on the Egyptian side was only 70.

Colonel Wodehouse has said, asked for his engagement with the derwishes he took 500 prisoners. The Egyptian camel corps and cavalry are now pursuing the enemy northwards. In addition to 70 killed on the Egyptian side, Captain J. J. Nason, of the Scottish Rifles, and Lieutenant G. G. Cunningham, of the Duke of Cornwall's Light Infantry, who are both attached to the Egyptian Army, were slightly wounded.

LONDON, July 4th.
Sir Roper Lethbridge has resigned his seat for North Kensington. In explaining his reasons to his constituents at North Kensington, for resigning his seat, he says that he considers it to be the duty of a member representing a London to remain constantly in London, and this he is unable to do, and consequently resigns; he does not, therefore, seek re-election in London, but will probably contest a country seat.

The death is announced of Major Alexander G. Dickson, Conservative member for Dover.

CAIRO, July 4th.
Colonel Wodehouse with his force, is harassing the derwishes very severely and stopping their access to water. Numbers of them have been killed by the cavalry, who are still in pursuit, and those who still survive are suffering terribly from thirst.

ERZEROUH, July 4th.
Several Armenians have been arrested here on suspicion of plotting against the Turkish Government.

LONDON, July 5th.
Mr. Dadhabhai Nowrojee yesterday presented the Shah with an address from the Persians, in which His Majesty was thanked for the improved condition of the Zoroastrians in Persia. His Majesty in his reply said that he was their protector, and that he greatly liked the Persians.

In the House of Commons last night Mr. W. H. Smith moved the appointment of a committee for the purpose of considering the messages from Her Majesty the Queen regarding provision to be made for Prince Albert Victor and Princess Louise of Wales and to report what principle should be adopted in future with respect to similar grants.

Mr. Gladstone concurred in the object of the motion.

Mr. Labouchere contended that grants to members of the Prince of Wales's family should come out of the Civil List.

Mr. Bradlaugh urged that the proposed committee should also inquire into the Civil List generally.

The House eventually adopted Mr. Smith's motion.

The Shah yesterday received in audience at Buckingham Palace the members of Mr. Gladstone's last Cabinet.

Lord Lytton has recovered from his recent illness, and returned yesterday to the Embassy at Paris.

AMOR.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

Amoy, 18th July, 1889.
The weather here during the last two weeks has been very hot and dry, causing a lot of fever among the natives of Amoy; otherwise the health of the port has been very good. No cholera of any kind has yet made an appearance.

The Chinese revenue cruiser Zing Feng has been employed lately cruising outside and searching the junks from your port and the Straits Settlements for opium and other contraband goods. She surprised on one junk, but I hear that the so-called opium on board was only a few hundred pounds of opium.

The Zing Feng ranges up alongside a junk and looks at her rigging, and then the boarding officer puts his head down the hatches to see if the cargo is all right, and that is all; it is impossible to make a proper search while at sea.

The night before last there was one of the loudest claps of thunder that has ever been heard in this port, accompanied by two of the most vivid flashes of lightning; fortunately no material damage was done. The house occupied by Mr. Knollthurst was struck, but the lightning only knocked off the top of a chimney and then went through the roof of the kitchen.

I hear that the native opium crop this year is the best that they have ever had.

The charming island of Kulang is rapidly becoming a Chinese city; native houses are springing up in every direction, and Mr. Cheang Hong Lim, a wealthy Singapore merchant, is trying to buy up all or nearly all the foreign-built houses on the island. Nearly half of them are already owned by Chinese.

Mr. W. Holland has arrived from Newchwang, where he has been acting as consul for nearly two years, to take up his post as British vice-consul here.

Dr. C. Merz goes home by the next German mail.

I don't think the Douglas Steamship Company will pay such a handsome dividend this year as they did last, as they have lost nearly all the transhipment of tea to Hongkong for the United States. Both the Occidental and Oriental and Pacific Mail Co.'s steamers are calling here regularly, and take the tea direct.
